ORDER

AND NOW, this 22nd day of December, 2010, it is hereby ORDERED that effective January 3, 2011, General Orders #2010-1, #2010-5 and #2010-9, dated March 31, 2010, April 20, 2010 and November 24, 2010, respectively, regarding the assignment of cases in this Court, are modified as follows:

(1) Until further Order of Court, except as otherwise noted, all cases filed in the Pittsburgh Division of the Court will be promptly assigned on a random basis by the Clerk, to all bankruptcy judges in the following manner:

(a) Judge Markovitz shall be assigned all Chapter 7 cases filed by debtors in the Pittsburgh Counties,

(b) Judges Agresti, Fitzgerald, and Deller shall be assigned an equal number of Chapter 11 cases filed by debtors in the Pittsburgh Counties with Judges Agresti and Deller given credit for Chapter 11 cases assigned to them in the Erie Division and Johnstown Division,

(c) Chapter 13 cases filed in the Pittsburgh Division shall be assigned according to the following formula: Judge Fitzgerald will receive 58% of the cases; Judge Deller will receive 30% of the cases; and Judge Agresti will receive 12% of the cases,

(d) Judges Fitzgerald and Deller shall be assigned an equal number of Chapter 12 cases in the Pittsburgh Division,

(e) Judges Fitzgerald and Deller will be assigned an equal number of Chapter 15 cases in the Pittsburgh Division, and,

(f) All pending Chapter 7 cases and related adversary proceedings assigned to Judge McCullough as of November 23, 2010, are reassigned to Judge Markovitz. Other Chapter 7 cases may be reassigned to Judge Markovitz on a case-by-case basis. All inquiries regarding cases assigned to Judge Markovitz shall be directed to Debbie Daum and Pat Bickar.

(2) In all other respects, General Orders #2010-1, #2010-5 and #2010-9, dated March 31, 2010, April 20, 2010 and November 24, 2010, respectively, remain in full force and effect.

Hon. Thomas P. Agresti, Chief Judge
