

Rule 1001-4 STANDING ORDERS

- (a) The Court may issue Standing Orders that supplement and/or amend these Rules.

- (b) Standing Orders shall be filed on the Miscellaneous Docket and posted on the Court's website, addressing but not limited to the following:
 - (1) temporary measures inappropriate for inclusion in these Rules (e.g., the closure of the Court during a holiday, inclement weather or emergency);
 - (2) matters requiring prompt action (e.g., accommodating changes to the Bankruptcy Code or federal rules), and/or addressing matters where the Court determines that there is an immediate need to revise or enact a rule;
 - (3) the assignment or reassignment of cases, or
 - (4) the adoption and implementation of the latest version of these Local Rules and corresponding Local Forms.

- (c) Standing Orders issued under subpart (b)(2) of this Rule shall be incorporated into and superseded by these Rules during the ensuing, annual, formal revision process, including review and comment by the Standing Local Rules Committee, a public comment period and approval by both the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania and the Judicial Council for the Third Circuit Court of Appeals.
