

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania

COURT TO REMAIN OPEN

DURING GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN

Despite the government shutdown, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania will remain open and continue operations pending further Order of the Court. Filings will be accepted, and hearings and trials will continue to be scheduled. Cases and proceedings where the United States is a party, and where the government is a party in interest represented by counsel affected by the shutdown, may be continued or go forward at the discretion of the presiding Judge.
