ORDER

Whereas Rule 3003(c)(3) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure provides that the Court shall fix the time within which proofs of claim may be filed in Chapter 11 cases, and

Whereas the Court deems that 90 days from the §341 Meeting of Creditors is a reasonable period of time for cases in which the debtor has not elected to be considered a small business, and that 30 days from the §341 Meeting of Creditors is a reasonable period of time for cases in which the debtor has elected to be considered a small business;

Now Therefore, this 31st day of March, 1997, the Clerk is hereby authorized and directed to provide in all Chapter 11 §341 Notices in which the debtor has not elected to be considered a small business, a 90 day period of time, running from the date of the Meeting of Creditors, within which proofs of claim may be filed, and, in all Chapter 11 §341 Notices in which the debtor has elected to be considered a small business, a 30 day period of time, running from the date of the Meeting of Creditors, within which proofs of claim may be filed. These 90 day and 30 day periods, which shall be computer generated and inserted in the §341 Meeting of Creditors Notices, shall constitute the fixing by the Court of the claims bar date as required by FRBP 3003(c)(3).
