

Rule 9019-6 POSTMEDIATION PROCEDURES

(a) The mediator is not required to prepare written comments or recommendations to the parties. Mediators may present a written settlement recommendation memorandum to attorneys or pro se litigants, but not to the Court.

(b) If a settlement is reached at a mediation, a party designated by the mediator shall submit a fully executed stipulation and proposed order to the Court within seven (7) calendar days after the end of the mediation. If the party fails to prepare the stipulation and order, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions against the parties to the mediation. All stipulations and proposed orders required pursuant to this Local Rule shall include a provision that requires the payment of the mediator's fees and expenses.

(c) Promptly after the mediation conference, the mediator shall file with the Court, and serve on the parties and the Mediation Program Administrator, Local Bankruptcy Form 32 (Mediator's Certificate of Completion of Mediation Conference) showing compliance or noncompliance with the mediation conference requirements of this Local Bankruptcy Rule and whether or not a settlement has been reached. Regardless of the outcome of the mediation conference, the mediator shall not provide the Court with any details of the substance of the conference.

(d) Whether or not the mediation conference results in a settlement, within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the mediation the mediator shall file on the docket of the case the Mediator's Certificate of Completion of Mediation Conference (Local Bankruptcy Form 32) and submit to the Mediation Administrator the Report of Mediation Conference & Mediator Survey through the Court's website at: <http://www.pawb.uscourts.gov/bankruptcy-mediators-upload>.
