

Rule 1001-4 STANDING ORDERS

- (a) The Court may issue Standing Orders that supplement and/or amend these Rules.
- (b) Standing Orders shall be filed on the Miscellaneous Docket and posted on the Court's website, addressing but not limited to the following:
 - (1) temporary measures inappropriate for inclusion in these Rules (e.g., the closure of the Court during a holiday, inclement weather or emergency);
 - (2) matters requiring prompt action (e.g., accommodating changes to the Bankruptcy Code or federal rules), and/or addressing matters where the Court determines that there is an immediate need to revise or enact a rule;
 - (3) the assignment or reassignment of cases, or
 - (4) the adoption and implementation of the latest version of these Local Rules and corresponding Local Forms.
- (c) Standing Orders issued under subpart (b)(2) of this Rule shall be incorporated into and superseded by these Rules during the ensuing cyclical Rules revision process.
