Misc. Proc. #22-218

STANDING ORDER

On December 27, 2019, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania (the “Court”) issued Standing Order 19-217 adopting changes to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (“Interim Rules”) necessitated by the enactment of the Small Business Reorganization Act of 2019 (the “SBRA”). On April 22, 2020, the Court issued Standing Order 20-210 amending Interim Rule 1020 as necessitated by the enactment of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the “CARES Act”). On March 27, 2021, the COVID-19 Bankruptcy Relief Extension Act of 2021 was signed into law, extending the temporary Code changes relevant to Interim Rule 1020 for an additional year. Due to legislative inaction, however, those provisions expired on March 27, 2022. On March 25, 2022, the Court issued Standing Order 22-208 restoring Interim Rule 1020 to the pre-CARES ACT version as originally adopted by way of Standing Order 19-217. On June 21, 2022, the Bankruptcy Threshold Adjustment and Technical Corrections Act (the “BTATC Act”) was signed into law, necessitating a change to Interim Rule 1020(a) reverting back to the version that was adopted by way of Standing Order 20-210.

AND NOW THEREFORE, this 7th day of July, 2022, it is hereby ORDERED that, effective immediately:

1. Standing Order 22-208 is superseded.
2. The version of Interim Rule 1020 adopted by way of Standing Order 20-210 is reinstated. The version of Interim Rule 1020 adopted by this Order can be found at the link HERE.
3. All other Interim Rules adopted by way of Standing Order 19-217 shall remain in effect until the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure are formally amended, unless otherwise terminated by further order of this Court.
